4055 Marine Drive, West Vancouver, BC

Multi Award Winning Master Architect Nick Milkovich designed this stunning luxury custom residence with the vision of creating a quiet, serene and private oasis for its inhabitants. This home invokes a sense of well-being as it offers spectacular sunset views in the evening and majestic ocean views with abundant natural light. The home is situated on the property to feature a rock outcrop and to optimize its natural landscape. The Cross laminated timber panels, steel columns and concrete structure give it a modern, artistic and minimalist look. The kitchen offers the best of everything, with first-class cabinetry, top of the line appliances and functionality. This home is an absolute dream, located within steps of Sandy Cove beach and offers the ideal lifestyle for the most distinguished buyer. This iconic home will make a lasting impression for years to come.
